SUBJECT: Local Agency Military Base Recovery Areas/Specifies The 8-Year Designation Period

Assembly Bill 2875 (Vargas), as enacted on September 18, 2002, made the following changes to California law:

Section 7110.5 of the Government Code is added.

This act will change the designation period for Local Area Military Base Recovery Areas (LAMBRA) to expire eight years after the later of either of the following conditions:

- The governing body has notified the agency that legal title to the parcels on the former military base is transferred to the local government. (In the case of early transfer, the date the terms and conditions for satisfying the requirements of environmental clean up have been met and regulatory closure has occurred.)
- The governing body has notified the agency that vouchers have been issued to an employer that has entered into a lease or has received title to property located within the LAMBRA.

This act is effective January 1, 2003.

This act will not require any reports by the department to the Legislature.
